FIRST DAY OF STATE UNION

A. S. of E. Profitable One

FOR ASSOCIATION.

Splendid Address of Welcome
by Judge Gordon

The opening session of the Kentucky State Union of the American Society of Equity convened in the city court room at the court house at 10 o'clock Thursday morning with President J. Campbell Cantrell of Georgetown presiding. A large number of delegates were present when the meeting convened and the room was filled with spectators and members of the society attending the meeting.

Rev. J. A. Ritchey, of the Baptist church, pronounced the invocation. Judge J. P. Gordon made the opening address on behalf of the city of Madisonville and Hopkins county. It was undoubtedly the most able speech he has made during his career as a public man and members elsewhere in the assembly. President J. Campbell Cantrell of Georgetown, presided in behalf of the Society of Equity and in an eloquent address paid a compliment to Judge Gordon and praised the people of Madisonville and Hopkins county. He then turned the session of the day over to the city and county.

The session of the day was opened by the reading of the constitution and the attention of his listeners during the time he was speaking.

A committee on resolutions was appointed by the chair for the first

NEXT NUMBER OF ENTERTAINMENT COURSE.

The next number of the entertainment course is "The Marshalls" who will give one their unique entertainments at the Auditorium next Saturday night, January 23. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are culture Southerners, real quality folks, and they are well trained in the art of acting. This number will no doubt be of rare educational value as well as highly entertaining.

They appeared in several Kentucky cities last year, and we have heard nothing but words of highest praise in regard to them and their work. The program will consist of two short plays, and scenes from longer plays. The Marshalls are not amateurs in the art of acting, but they are real artists of superior natural talent, to which has been added the best training that can be secured in this country. Do not miss this high class entertainment.

SUDDEN SUMMONS

Miss Alice Wathen Stricken with Apoplexy Monday.

Miss Alice Wathen was stricken with apoplexy Monday morning between 11 and 12 o'clock and died at 8 o'clock that night without regaining consciousness. She had not been ill and was up and about her household duties all morning, and was seen by one of the neighbors about 11 o'clock, and the next seen of her was when the two Misses Wathen came home from school at noon, and found her lying on the floor unconscious. As quickly as possible neighbors and physicians were summoned, but it was evident from the first that the girl was dead. She had been in the best of health, and had seen to the fact that she was well. She lingered on without pain until 8 o'clock in the evening when her spirit took its flight to God who gave it.

Alice Asina Wathen was born in Meade county, Ky., in April, 1852, and was in her 57th year. She was a daughter of the late Dr. John P. Wathen and his wife, Mary Cook, and moved with her parents when a child to this county. She professed faith in Christ when a child and joined the church at Dunn Springs and retained her membership there until the end. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Ellen Bush, wife of W. H. Bush of this city, and two brothers, H. E. and G. C. Wathen, with whom she lived.

At the time of her death, she was keeping house for Moses Kuttin and Alice Wathen here in the city, where they are attending school. She was related to many of the county's best people and was an educated woman of sweet character, greatly beloved by all with whom she came in contact. In her brothers' home she was tenderly cared for and was a help and inspiration to her young nieces, who looked to her as to a mother for love, confidence and advice. Her mortal remains were laid to rest in the new cemetery Tuesday afternoon after the funeral at the residence, Rev. J. S. Henry officiating.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

League Organized Several were In Attendance.

Mrs. C. F. Parrell, of Paducah, District organizer for the State Federation of Women's Clubs, addressed an address at the school auditorium last Saturday P. M. Owing to an oversight, the meeting had not been properly advertised and only a few were present to hear Mrs. Parrell's able address. Her theme was, Educational Conditions in Kentucky and the need of organization of patrons for the purpose of co-operation with school officers and teachers in the improvement of our schools both in the country and in the town.

At the place of the address a County School Improvement League was organized and the following persons were chosen to fill the various offices: President, Mrs. F. W. Nunn; Sec., Mrs. Fannie Walker Treas., Mrs. J. H. Drums; Vice Pres., 1st District Prof. Chas. Host, 2nd District, Vice Pres., E. F. Smith, of Tolu, V. P., third district J. B. McNeely, V. P., fourth district Rev. H. R. Bennett, Press Reporter, Miss Ethel Hard.

The District Vice Presidents will proceed at once to organize Local Chapters of the League in each school district of their respective sub divisions. A meeting will be called in the near future to organize such a Chapter for the Marion Graded School.

The hearty and earnest co-operation of every citizen interested in better school houses, better libraries, better teachers, and fuller attendance in our schools, is desired, for it is only through such co-operation that the schools of our town and county can reach the maximum of efficiency and usefulness.

STEMMING DISTRICT ASSOCIATION SELLS A BIG LOT OF TOBACCO

Only Seven Million Pounds Now Left On Hand

THIS WILL BE DISPOSED OF.

Hopkins County Tobacco in the Deal to be Delivered Here Loose.

John N. Banks, editor of Tobacco Tidings sends out the following report to newspapers of another big deal, whereby the Stemming District Association disposes of six million pounds of the pooled crop:

The contracts were closed and signed last week and turned over to this writer.

I shall for the entertainment of Cleaner readers, transcribe the first paragraph of the contract with the John H. Hodge Tobacco company.

The Stemming District Tobacco Association, through William Elliott General Manager and E. G. Thompson, Secretary, acting under authority of its Executive Committee (hereinafter called the Part of the first Part), has this day sold to the John H. Hodge Tobacco Company, of Henderson, Kentucky, from two and one half to three million pounds of leaf tobacco of the 1908 crop grown in Hopkins county, and from one to two million pounds of the leaf tobacco of the 1908 crop grown in Webster county, or such portions thereof as the Part of the first Part now has pledged to it and unsold, under the following conditions:

I shall summarize, in newspaper column, the succeeding paragraphs of that contract. The Association is to deliver the Hopkins county tobacco at Madisonville, and the Webster county tobacco at Slaughtererville. The Association to be represented by a grader and the Hodge Company by a receiver at places of delivery. In case grader and receiver can't agree, third person to be called in. And just here, I wish to remind members that in all cases where the grader and receiver agree, their decision is binding. Every grader represents the Association and is therefore zealous to guard the right of every member delivering tobacco, while, at the same time, he is in duty bound to, in every instance, in fair dealing to purchasers, scrupulously carry out the terms of the contract. Grades and price of same as in all previous sales, follow:

GRADES AND PRICES.—No. 1 Leaf and Lugs 25 inches and over, $10.00 per hundred pounds, and for trash $5.00 per hundred pounds.

No. 3 Leaf and Lugs, 20 to 23 inches in length, $9.00 per hundred pounds. Trash $4.00.

No. 4 Leaf and Lugs, under 20 inches $7.00 per hundred pounds, and for Trash $3.00 per hundred.

No tobacco is to be delivered on Saturdays.

Included in above sale is the tobacco this far received by the Association at the Vaughn factory at Madisonville at the valuation placed upon it the time of receiving same. The Hodge Tobacco assumes and will carry out rental contract, and further agree to pay all expenses incurred in its return. Manager James R. Boyd salaries and wages paid, so as to make the contract a fair one. All expenses incurred to present time, and said company will retain Manager Livingston and carry out the Association's contract with said Livingston. And is to retain Manager James R. Boyd at Slaughtererville and carry out the contract with him.

MEANS $400,000

It is a sale of five million pounds of tobacco to be delivered at the points mentioned as far as practicable and provided that quantity is still left under the control of the Association and is unsold.

So much of the dry summary of a most interesting and significant transaction. Its money meaning is, say, Four Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Its collateral meaning in logical sequence of a new era of good feeling, promised for the future between two colossal combinations, the Association on one hand and the Regie Buyers on the other hitherto clashing in Commercial war. Rightly understood the two are logical partners. A mutual understanding of this profound truth is gradually dawning on the perception of both.

Members of this Association, I am writing true words, entertain for Mr. John H. Hodge, the resident Regie agent, personally the kindest sentiments.

Members of this Association will, I am writing true words, entertain for Mr. John Hodge, officially, the kindest sentiments when informed by this article of the above contract of sale.

THE GALLABER COMPANY, LIMITED.

A contract, an additional contract, I shall say, has been signed by the Association and the above named company, by which more tobacco, by a million pounds, is to be furnished by Henderson county to the Gallaber factory here in Henderson. Terms and details same as in previous sale. I'll let it go at that, since I am just back from a wearing trip to Madisonville.—Madisonville Daily Journal.

EDUCATIONAL

VALUE OF HABIT.

There is no subject more important than of habits, for character is but another name for habit. It is that condition of the mind or body which is manifested in the tendency to unconscious repetition of acts or states, for habits are not formed by mere resolution or purpose, but by a single effort or by a series of little efforts, but by repeated and continuous activity. Every act of the soul leaves an enduring result, an increased power to act and a tendency to act again in like manner, and every repetition of an act increases this power and tendency. And when this resulting tendency becomes so strong that an act is repeated without conscious voluntary effort, the result is called habit.

Horace Mann said, "Habit is a cable. We weave a thread for it each day, and it becomes so strong that we cannot break it." Then how essential it is for children to form habits of especial significance.

Man is called a creature of habits, because all his actions of mind and body are due to repetition. Animals learn to walk, swim and fly by instinct, but man requires the art of walking, swimming, and talking by practice, and when once firmly established can be called habits.

The two greatest factors of forming habit are the home and the school. Parents should teach the child the right way of doing things, for if the same thing is ever repeated it will be easier for him to do it like he did at first. He should hear only words pronounced distinctly and correctly, then when he enters school he will not have to learn to pronounce his words again.

Habits are divided into three general classes and these classes subdivided. The three general classes are physical, intellectual and moral habits, and the parents and teachers should help the child to form good habits of each class.

Walking is a physical habit, children must learn to walk correctly. He takes a first step, then another. It requires close attention at first, but finally the habit becomes automatic, and he walks without an effort. If he has not learned to walk correctly, his efforts to change will be hard to accomplish. Children should be taught the correct habit of breathing, incorrect breathing and faulty enunciation cause the children to get into the bad habit of stuttering. Teach him the correct habit of posture. See that he has the habit of holding the head correct. Be sure not to let him form useless habit.

Habit is the secret and the condition of self control, and self direction. It will be just as easy for a child to have good physical habits, as otherwise provided that he has been taught physical training right. Ninety-nine hundredths of all man does is automatically, that leaves his brain time and strength to attend to other affairs, no one could be a great thinker if he had to give conscious attention to walking. There would be no literature if writing was not automatic, in fact, there could not be skill of any kind were it not for habit.

Habit of intellect are remembering, thinking, and willing. The child must learn the habit of observing closely, of thinking clearly and quickly, of remembering accurately and readily. All these are good intellectual habits, all of which are the results of frequent repetition, and can be learned at home and in school.

Arithmetic is an excellent study to cultivate thought, for the child is required to think clearly before he can solve his problems. History is a good memory study, also reading if he is required to commit the best selections. In fact you can teach him intellectual habits in all of his studies.

Habits of virtue, honesty and reverence are called moral habits. The child must be taught that truth and honesty are the most important things that form a good character. Teach a child to not do things when conscience tells him it is wrong. Teach him that habits are more easily formed than broken, and that his actions should be noble, that a good name is to be chosen, rather than riches. That he should love God and man and he will acquire morals. Some writer said "Virtue itself is not safely lodged until it has become a habit." There are many ways in which you can teach a child moral habits.

Have him to read good books, tell him of noble men and women.

Have a certain period of time each morning for prayer.

Have him to read good books, tell him of noble men and women.

Next Meeting to be Held at Frankfort.

The annual state meeting of the American Society of Equity which has been in session in Madisonville since Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, came to a close at three o'clock this afternoon, after a very interesting and instructive session to the delegates and others who attended.

The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock Friday morning in order that the business of the day could be wound up in time to allow many of the delegates to return home, and the most important session was rapidly transacted.

Hear Mr. and Mrs. Marshall at the School Auditorium, Saturday evening, January 23. Doors open at seven thirty, program beginning at eight tations in the Bible you wish him to read. After repeating this several times reading the bible will have become a habit.

Some of the subdivisions of the general classes of habits are: habits of cleanliness, neatness, orderliness, punctuality, courtesy, quickness and obedience.

Cleanliness and neatness are next to godliness, and children will form these habits readily, by the parents and teachers help. Most children taken out of their personal appearance if they know they are noticed. There are many devices in which you can help the child form these habits.

We sow habit in muscle, nerve, and brain, so shall we, and those who come after us reap in aptitude, skill, character, and if the parents have sown good habits, the child will reap good habits. All of us should habit

CASH IN ADVANCE

And Stop When Time Is Out System Adopted,

The Publisher of the Record-Press has Decided to Adopt the Cash-in-Advance and Stop-When-Time-is-Out-Policy on all Subscriptions for the Following Reasons.

FIRST—The post-office regulations require us to stop the paper when the subscriber becomes nine months in arrears. We find that this requires constant watchfulness and when these subscriptions are stopped, the amounts due us are practically lost to us because we can not see the people personally and collect, and they do not find it convenient to call or remit, and in a short while the thing is forgotten.

SECOND—Because perhaps one half our subscribers tell us to stop when the time is out and the other half tell us to keep on sending the paper. It is impossible for our clerk to remember who wants it stopped and who wants it sent on, and confusion and in many cases mistakes and ill feeling occur.

THIRD—Because everything we buy we have to pay cash for and our employees have to have their money every Saturday night. The cost of newspaper production is heavily increasing and it takes cash to keep things going.

FOURTH—Because we have now on our books exceeding $4,000 due us on subscriptions, nearly every cent of which is good but is so scattered over the country that it is impossible for us to collect it when we need it most. We send out names occasionally and many respond promptly, while the majority do not, because they do not find it convenient just at the time and the matter is deferred. Finally the amount runs up to $3, $4, $5, $6 or $7—and then in many cases the subscriber can't pay and we have finally to stop the paper and lose this amount, when to have paid $1 at the beginning of each year would have been easy and satisfactorily to both sides.

We give this notice in ample time for all subscribers to adjust their accounts. We want every subscriber to remain with us and believe it will be far more satisfactory to all concerned. Time was when the circulation of the RECORD-PRESS was small, and we knew personally almost every subscriber.

Now we furnish a paper much larger and better for the same price. It costs us nearly three times as much to furnish the greatest paper as it did a few years back. We cannot afford to carry on our book $4,000 in just due subscription accounts and we believe every reasonable man will agree with us.

On January 30th, 1909, the New System Will be Put Into Effect. On that Date All Past Due Subscriptions Will be Stopped and thereafter all Subscriptions will be Stopped Promptly at Expiration.

This is fair to everybody and is made necessary by reason of the postal regulations and sound business policy, as well as justice to all Our Subscribers

ATTEMPT TO LIVE AS JESUS WOULD.

Half of Two Weeks' Test Ends at Cleveland, With Much Dissatisfaction.

DIFFERENCES OF OPINION.

Don't Know Enough About Jesus to Know How He Would Live.

EYES OF COUNTRY ON THEM.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 29.—The movement begun last Sunday by 1,800 young people of this city to live for two weeks as Jesus would have assumed a scope far beyond the expectations of its promoters. It now is city wide and is spreading to nearby towns. Fully 10,000 volunteers have unofficially joined the movement by not indulging in the test of indulging themselves to walk in the shoes. Even the city officials are taking an interest and are rumormongering upon the question of what Jesus would do if he were a city official. Many interesting experiences have been related by those who have completed the first week's test. Some claim they cannot carry the practice into business. Others say they can. The test also has brought a host of critics, some praising, others condemning, the idea. Church people are encouraging the trial and pleading for its continuance. The scoffers sarcastically say the effort, which is being made mostly by church members, should be unnecessary, as it implies a past hypocrisy.

All sorts of arguments have resulted, as discussions are being carried on in homes, in the church, clubs, and the local newspapers as to what Jesus would do under all manner of circumstances and what His attitude would be toward the common forms of amusement and recreation. The arguments center about the theatre, card playing, dancing and baseball, with supporters on either side.

The coming week will be the concluding period of the official test. It has attracted the attention of church people all over the country who are observing the result. It is not considered unlikely that the Cleveland movement will result in other cities making the test, as the local effort is said to be the first ever made, upon a large and comprehensive basis, to combat with modern conditions as it is believed Jesus would.

KENTUCKY HAS CHANCE TO RAISE MUCH CORN.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 29.—If the farmers of Kentucky would pay more attention to the raising of corn the State would soon be known as one of the greatest corn producing regions in the Union. This statement was made by Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Rankin the other day. He is greatly interested in the raising of corn in Kentucky right now, and in response to a request for samples of the best varieties of corn grown in Kentucky, he has received from Charles W. Caldwell, of Boyle county, a crate of ears of some of the best Boyle county white corn that has been seen at the State Agricultural Department in a long time. Mr. Rankin intends to distribute these samples, for he desires to make a test of the agricultural productivity of the various sections of the State, especially the mountain region. A few samples sent to the mountain counties last year brought surprising results, and he believes that the mountain section is capable of greatly increasing its productivity in corn, and other cereals.

C. Smoot. An injunction was granted in the case.

CLOUDS RAIN HOT SHOT IN CALIFORNIA.

Remarkable Phenomenon Noted at Santa Cruz--Disintegrated Meteor Alleged Cause.

Santa Cruz, Cal., Jan. 6.--A remarkable phenomenon that has caused wonder and consternation in the neighborhood of the Santa Cruz beach was reported by Mrs. W. H. Burns, of this city, today, and when investigated her story was fully corroborated by residents of the neighborhood. Mrs. Burns' curiosity was aroused yesterday by the peculiar action of a number of barefoot children who were playing in front of her house.

When she asked them what was the matter they told her that the air was full of electricity and that hot shot was falling from the clouds. She then noticed a clatter on the housetop that sounded like hail, and she saw little white threads of smoke arising from the roof wherever these little red-hot metal globules struck the damp boards. Every roof in the vicinity showed the same peculiar conditions.

This mottled rain continued from about 3 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon and was varied in intensity. At the time, however, the children, bare-headed and unshod, were compelled to take to cover. One boy carries a burn on his finger as the result of being struck by one of the hot pellets.

One theory to account for the phenomenon is that the mottled rain was due to a passing meteor that had been disintegrated.

Mrs. Burns has saved a few of the little pellets. They are about the size of No. 8 shot and resemble lead.

BLEW UP ON BARREL Dropped Lighted Match in Air Hole and Gas Inside Let Go.

Cy Dawson, colored, was blown up and considerably bruised in a rather unusual manner Thursday afternoon.

He was sitting on the head of an empty whisky barrel at a Second avenue saloon, and, after lighting his pipe, dropped the lighted match into a hole in the barrel head. Almost instantly there was a loud detonation, the head of the barrel was blown out completely and Dawson, who weighs about 160 pounds, struck the ceiling, so great was the force of the explosion. When he fell he suffered several bad bruises and it is reported that one arm was broken.

The barrel was entirely empty but was filled with gas from the whisky. When the burning match was dropped into it this exploded.... Hopkinsville New Era.

STOMACH DISTRESS

And All Misery From Indigestion Vanishes Five Minutes Later.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nauseas, Debilitating Headache, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or Indigestion. 34-38-42-46.

CATARRH MUST GO

And Hawking, Splitting Snuffles Must Go Too.

Hromel (pronounced High-o-me) will give the sufferer from catarrh joyful relief in five minutes.

It is such a remarkable cure, and so positive in its action, that HAYNES & TAYLOR goes so far as to guarantee it to cure catarrh or money back.

A complete outfit, which consists of a hard rubber pocket inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and a unique dropper for filling the inhaler, only costs and if an extra bottle is afterwards needed, the price is only 50 cents.

Hyomei is a healing, antiseptic balsam, taken from the mighty eucalyptus trees in the health-giving forests of Australia, where diseases of the respiratory tract are unknown.

All the sufferer has to do is to inhale the antiseptic air of Hyomei over the inflamed parts, where the germs are entrenched three or four times a day. It cures coughs, colds, asthma, hay fever and croup without stomach dosing.

Rev. Wilson, who succeeded Rev. M. E. Miller as pastor at New Bethel and Kinnawa, was the guest of the latter Sunday. Sunday night he filled the pulpit at the Baptist church. The large audience was treated to an unusually strong sermon, well delivered.

There was a good attendance at the drawing and several came close to it, but Miss Clifton's card contained the exact time to a minute at which the clock stopped. "What time was the clock stop?" "What time was your card?" "Who got the money?" These are the main questions now in trading circles.

Patrons can save themselves inconvenience by noticing if their lights are right when the current is put on, which is at 4 o'clock p. m. usually, and earlier on cloudy days. We have a man for attending to trouble between that time and 6 o'clock, as it is easy to repair any break in daylight, even if on a pole, whereas after dark it is exceedingly dangerous, especially on damp days, to climb a pole. Repairs inside the house can be attended to much more satisfactorily to patrons in daylight, and it frequently occurs that we have no available hand just at 6 o'clock p. m.

Methodist Revival.

The Methodist revival, which is on in earnest, is one of the greatest in the history of the city, and the interest continues. All the ministers in the city are assisting. Revs. Love, Miller, Henry, Thompson, Price, Oakley and others being present and doing all in their power to assist Rev. J. B. Adams. A splendid choir of forty voices, led by W. B. The meetings, afternoon and night are largely attended—even standing room not always obtainable by the opening hour.

Musical Club Entertained by Mrs. W. O. Tocker.

The Music Club held its regular meeting on Saturday, Jan. 16th, at the pleasant home of Mrs. W. O. Tocker, on north Main street.

Schubert's compositions, both instrumental and vocal and his life was discussed. The Club voted to confederate with the Woman's Club of Kentucky in pursuance of the armaments presented by Mrs. Purcell, of Paducah, and hoped to be much benefited by this new movement. The evening was delightfully spent with the charming hostess, who served most refreshments by her bright and cheerful manner added much to the pleasure of the occasion. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Tocker, Saturday, Feb. 13th.

A FRIEND.

Equity Society

One the biggest tobacco deals made recently was closed yesterday. Mr. John Hodges, of Henderson, and Paducah, bought from the Society of Equity 3,500,000 pounds of the 1908 crop for the Italian government. The prices agreed upon was not given, but it is understood to be good. Two million pounds are to be delivered at Madisonville and the balance of the contract filled at Hodgeville.

Sales at Bohmer's loose leaf tobacco warehouse for Saturday amounted to 45,000 pounds which brought from $4.30 to $4.9. The best bidders were Hodge & Co., and Stahl & Co. The market was very strong and the farmers were well pleased with the tone of the market. There were no rejections.

CLYDE WOODY DEAD.

End of Christmas Week Tragedy.

Clyde Woody, who was shot by a man in Evansville, Ind., Christmas week is dead. The end came Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of his mother, Mrs. Alex Woody, near Mattoon. From all reports received here it would seem as if the shooting was unprovoked and without justification. He and a young friend were dancing, and when they stopped, a man named Smith, undertook to force them to dance longer by shooting at their feet and when Woody refused to dance, he shot at his head and only missed it a little, the ball striking on the side of his neck and glancing around. He was taken to the hospital and treated there until he was pronounced dead when he came home, but by the rupture of the artery which was thought he had quickly bled to death.
